OUT OF PROVINCE GUEST PLAYER RELEASE FORM

All Manitoba Soccer Association (MSA) players must have approval from the MSA prior to playing for a non-Manitoba team. This is to ensure that all MSA registered players participating with teams that are registered in soccer jurisdictions other than Manitoba have proper sanctioning and insurance. Sanctioning is necessary to comply with CSA and FIFA regulations on players participating outside the jurisdiction in which they are registered.

All players are under the primary jurisdiction of the Manitoba Soccer Association and under secondary jurisdiction of the Association in whose territory the game(s) are to be played and shall abide by the rules and regulations of the specific competitions entered. Travelling players shall also remain subject to the rules and regulations of the Manitoba Soccer Association and their Soccer Organization/League as far as disciplinary matters are concerned. Approval will only be granted to affiliated members in good standing with the MSA. Suspended players are not eligible to participate. Special permission is required for games against non-affiliated teams.
